* We include two staff belayers for your climbing party. When participants are not climbing, they can enjoy free play in KidQuest, our awesome sports-themed indoor playground. If your party exceeds 10 guests we recommend an additional belayer. We will train parents and friends to assist staff belayers at no charge, at least one week prior to the party. Sun Country can provide additional belayers at a charge of $60.00 each. Renting additional belayers will assure your party guests more climbing time.

 While the children are enjoying free play in KidQuest, it is the party parents responsibility to monitor all party guests. If you choose NOT to supervise your guests in our KidQuest area, then you must rent an additional staff member.
